GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE

Article 1 - Conditions applicable to SIDEL purchases

These General Terms and Conditions of Purchase shall apply to all purchases made by SIDEL and all other SIDEL Group companies (hereinafter 'SIDEL') of any kind of product, material, equipment, spare part, component, modules or associated services (hereafter 'the Products'). Hence, acceptance from Supplier of a SIDEL purchase order (hereinafter the "Order(s)") obliges the Supplier to comply in full with these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase, the Special Purchasing Terms and Conditions, if any, and SIDEL's Order (collectively the "Contract"). No other terms and conditions including without limitation any terms and conditions set out in the Supplier's acknowledgment of receipt or in the Supplier's invoices or other document shall apply. Should there be any inconsistency between these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase and the Special Purchasing Terms and Conditions, the latter shall prevail; SIDEL's Orders shall prevail over both the General Terms and Conditions of Purchase and the Special Purchasing Terms and Conditions.

Article 2 - Acknowledgment of receipt of Order

The Supplier shall acknowledge the Order within two (2) working days of its date of receipt. If it does not, any performance of part or all of the Order shall be regarded as unreserved tacit acceptance of the Contract. Reservations, modifications or exceptions to the Contract by the Supplier, also by way of any attempted acknowledgment of the Order containing terms inconsistent with or in addition to terms of the Contract, shall not be binding unless specifically accepted by SIDEL in writing.

Article 3 - Delivery times

Compliance with the delivery date stated in the Order is mandatory. Delivery date shall be the date on which the Supplier shall make the Products available to SIDEL at the address indicated in the Order and/or pursuant to the delivery term set forth in the Order/Contract, such Products being in compliance with the required quantity and quality. Early and/or partial delivery must be expressly agreed by SIDEL. The Supplier shall inform SIDEL as soon as possible of any delay in fulfilling the Order, such notification shall not relieve the Supplier from any liability due to any delay.

Article 4 - Liquidated damages for late delivery

In case of late delivery and/or refusal of acceptance or partial acceptance and/or acceptance with reservations, SIDEL reserves the right to apply, without prior formal notice and without any court decision, (i) General administration fee Rs. 3000/- and or (ii) Liquidated damages at the following rates 3% of the total value of the order (net of tax) per calendar day of delay upto a maximum aggregate limit of compensation 10% of the total value of the order (net of tax) and or (iii) Actual production loss. (iv) LD shall not be the sole and exclusive remedy for SIDEL, SIDEL keeps all other rights and remedies (if loss suffered by Sidel is not covered by LD. Sidel can claim a compensation for direct & indirect costs and losses. Such liquidated damages shall be without prejudice to SIDEL's other rights and remedies at law or contract.

Article 5 - Packaging - Delivery - Acceptance of Products - Refusal of Products

The delivery term shall be set out in the Order according to ICC INCOTERMS® 2010. It is the Supplier's responsibility to supply, at its own expense, the Products properly marked and packed in accordance with SIDEL instructions and/or the best international standards to ensure the complete protection and safety of the Products until delivery. Unless otherwise specified in the Order, the Supplier shall elect the means of transport and accept all resulting costs, liabilities and risks until Products are delivered to the place of delivery indicated in the Order. The Supplier shall, at its own expense, take out insurance to cover the Products until delivery. Delivery shall take place during SIDEL's working hours or those of the recipient of the Products. Should delivery of Products not be accompanied by a delivery note including full details of SIDEL's Order, SIDEL may reject the delivered Products. Signature by SIDEL of the Supplier's or carrier's delivery note shall not be deemed as acceptance of the Products and does not relieve the Supplier of its obligation to deliver Products fully compliant with the Contract and free from any defects. Delivery shall not be deemed accepted by SIDEL until the Products and the attached technical documents have been checked against the Order in terms of both quantity and quality. If the Products are refused or are subject to reservations, SIDEL may, without prejudice to other rights and remedies at law or contract, including but not limited to damages and/or liquidated damages for late delivery, reject the Products and (1) demand from the Supplier : (a) a free replacement for the defective or non-compliant Products, or (b) their free repair or modification, and, in the cases set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b), SIDEL may withhold total or partial payment until the replacement, the repair and/or the modification is completed and accepted by SIDEL, or (c) a total or partial refund of the price, or (2) after consultation with the Supplier, have the Products repaired or replaced by a third party of SIDEL's choice at the expense of the Supplier, or (3) terminate the Contract pursuant to Article 17 of these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase. Any return of refused Products and any delivery of new or repaired Products shall be at the Supplier's expense and at its own risk.

Article 6 - Price, payment and invoicing

All prices are firm and not subject to change for the duration of the Contrat. Prices and payment terms are stated in the Special Purchasing Terms and Conditions or in SIDEL's Order. Prices for Products are net of tax and shall include, unless otherwise agreed in writing with SIDEL, all costs of packaging, insurance and carriage for the Products to the place of delivery. The Supplier may invoice SIDEL on completion of delivery.

Article 7 - Transfer of risk and title

Risk of and title to the Products shall pass to SIDEL on delivery. Transfer of title shall not relieve the Supplier or SIDEL of their respective obligations.

Article 8 - Quality Assurance

The Supplier shall take such precautions and institute such procedures as to assure that quality specifications provided by SIDEL are met as the Products are manufactured, thus disposing of any need for SIDEL to inspect the Products on arrival.

Article 9 - Assignment - Fulfillment of Orders

The Supplier shall not assign all or any part of the Contract without the prior written approval of SIDEL. If case of any assignment or subcontracting, the Supplier shall remain wholly liable for full and complete fulfillment of the Contract. The assignment by Supplier of any credits arising from the Contract shall be subject to prior written communication to SIDEL and to specific modalities of credit assignment to be agreed with SIDEL.

Any purchases forecast that the Supplier may receive from SIDEL shall be for information purpose only. The Supplier shall not be entitled to compensation from SIDEL due to any difference between such forecast and actual Orders made by SIDEL. During any forecast period SIDEL will update the forecast as soon as practicable after it determines that a change in the forecast is appropriate.

Article 10 - Business conduct

The Supplier shall at all times ensure that it complies with the obligations set out in SIDEL Business Conduct for Suppliers (current version attached as appendix A)

Article 11 - Health and safety requirements

If the Supplier provides services at SIDEL's site or at SIDEL's customer site, the Supplier shall only assign personnel who have received a specific training related to health and safety issues to the performance of the services. The Supplier shall comply (and cause its and the personnel of its subcontractors to comply) with all safety, health and security procedures and rules which are in effect at SIDEL's site or at SIDEL's customer site or which are provided by applicable laws. In any case, the Supplier shall not start the services until it has prepared with SIDEL or the customer a health, safety, environment and security coordination plan which defines the measures that will have to be applied as to prevent health and security risks on the worksite. The Supplier shall apply (and cause its and the personnel of its subcontractors to apply) this coordination plan.

Article 12 - Warranty

Without prejudice to any statutory warranty that may apply, and unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Supplier and SIDEL, the Supplier warrants the Products for a period of twenty four (24) months after delivery of the Products. The Supplier warrants that the Products are: (i) new and not used, (ii) fit for any purpose for which such Products are customarily used, (iii) in full compliance with the requirements of the Contract and any applicable laws and regulations (including without limitation all applicable health and safety legislation), and (iv) free from all defects in design, material and workmanship. During the warranty period, and upon SIDEL's request, the Supplier shall, in SIDEL's sole discretion, replace or repair at its own expense any defective Products or any parts of the Products. Such repair or replacement shall be effected promptly, at the latest within five (5) working days from SIDEL's request. If, in SIDEL's opinion, the rectification must be carried out immediately or if Supplier fails completely or in part to remedy a defect within the time stipulated above, SIDEL may, at its sole discretion, either remedy the defect by its own accord or have it remedied by a third party of its choice, at the cost of the Supplier, or claim a refund of the purchase price. Any returns of faulty Products/items to the Supplier and any deliveries of new Products or repaired Products supplied by the Supplier under the warranty shall be made at the costs and risks of the Supplier. In addition, without prejudice to any statutory warranty and/or remedy that may apply, the Supplier shall indemnify and hold SIDEL harmless against all costs and losses incurred or paid by SIDEL as a result of or in connection with the defective Product including but not limited to fault-tracing, inspection, dismantling- and reassembling costs, transportation, labour, travel and hotel expenses.

Article 13- Export control

The Supplier is aware of and understands that the Products may be subject to economic or financial sanctions or trade embargos imposed, administered or enforced by the United Nations, the United States of America, the European Union and/or other countries' applicable export control laws. The Supplier therefore undertakes to provide SIDEL with all necessary export control information relating to the Products, such as ECCN-numbers, Country of Origin, and US content, in the format provided by SIDEL and to update such information in case there are any changes to the Products. If the Supplier does not provide the necessary information, the Supplier hereby warrants and represents that no Product (including any parts thereof) delivered under this Contract is subject to any export or international trade control laws or regulations. For the sake of clarity, the Supplier's failure to comply with this Article 13 shall constitute a fundamental breach of this Contract.

Article 14 - Liability - Insurance

The Supplier shall indemnify and hold SIDEL harmless against all claims, losses, damages and liabilities incurred by or awarded against SIDEL relating to bodily injury, property damage or consequential loss and any other damages caused by the Products, including without limitation damage to or loss of raw materials and end-products in SIDEL's end-customer's production.

The Supplier shall take out and maintain a third party liability insurance (including public liability, professional liability and product liability) to cover the pecuniary consequences of any liability that the Supplier may incur for bodily injury, property damage or consequential loss and any other damages caused to SIDEL or to a third party by its Products, services or activities. The Supplier shall supply proof of such insurance to SIDEL immediately on request. The Supplier shall also ensure that all its suppliers and sub-contractors also comply with this clause.

Article 15 - Intellectual property rights

For the purposes of these General Terms, Intellectual Property Rights shall mean (a) any and all rights in and to all inventions, technical information, know-how, trade secrets, drawings, models, specifications, testing procedures and results, software, copyright, brands, product markings, designs and the like, (b) any registered intellectual property rights, such as patents, utility models, design patents, trademarks including applications for any of the foregoing (c) the right to file any applications for such registered rights and (d) any license granted by any third party to use such rights. Any Intellectual Property Rights and/or confidential information (as defined in article 16) which are either (a) pre-existing to the Contract and to any exchange of information between the parties relating to the Contract, or (b) demonstrated by documentary evidence to be developed or acquired wholly independently by either party and without relying on any Intellectual Property Rights and/or confidential information received from the other party, shall remain the property of that party.

All specifications, requirements, testing procedures and results and other technical information provided by SIDEL to the Supplier and all Intellectual Property Rights therein (the "Technical Information") shall be exclusively owned by SIDEL and constitute confidential information of SIDEL for the purposes of article 16.Supplier's rights to use the Technical Information are limited to a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited, revocable licence under the Technical Information's Intellectual Property Rights to fulfill Supplier's obligations under and for the term of the Contract, subject at all times to any instructions and/or restrictions communicated to Supplier by SIDEL. The Supplier warrants, represents and undertakes that the Products, supplied hereunder, do not infringe any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party.

If at any time it is alleged that the use of the products infringe the rights of any third party, Supplier shall at SIDEL'S option and Suppliers cost: (a) modify or replace the products in order to it avoid the infringement; or (b) procure for SIDEL the right to continue using the Products; or (c) only in case options (a) and (b) are not available despite Supplier's best efforts, refund to SIDEL the price paid by SIDEL for the Products or parts thereof infringing any Intellectual Property Rights. In addition, notwithstanding the provisions of article 15, Supplier shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless SIDEL, SIDEL Associated Companies and SIDEL customers from any claims, losses, costs (including without limitation reimbursement of legal fees), damages or liabilities arising out of infringement or alleged infringement, directly or indirectly, of any Intellectual Property Right of any third party by reason of the sale or use of the Products

Article 16 - Confidentiality

All technical, industrial, commercial and financial information, in whatever form, to which the Supplier may have access as part of or during its contractual relationship with SIDEL shall be treated in strictest confidence. The Supplier shall not, without previous written consent of SIDEL, make this information available to any third party, either in whole or in part, nor use it for purposes other than performing the Contract or other than those for which it was handed over. These General Terms and Conditions of Purchase, the Special Purchasing Terms and Conditions and the SIDEL's Orders are confidential. The Supplier shall ensure that its employees, suppliers or sub-contractors (if any) comply with this confidentiality requirement.

Article 17 - Termination

In the event of a failure by the Supplier to perform any of its obligations under the Contract, SIDEL may terminate immediately the Contract by way of a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt, provided that the breach has remained uncured for fifteen (15) days as from formal notice to the Supplier of such breach, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies SIDEL may have by law or contract. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, SIDEL shall have the right to terminate the Contract with immediate effect if the Supplier should enter into liquidation, either voluntary or compulsory, or become insolvent, or Supplier should enter into receivership or bankruptcy.

Article 18 - Applicable law and dispute resolution

All disputes, controversies or claims arising in connection with this Contract will be finally settled under the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 by three arbitrators appointed in accordance with the said Rules unless the Parties agree on the choice of one arbitrator. The arbitration will take place in Pune, India, in English.
